Darya Beigi
Web Developer

1222 E. Madison St.

Seattle, WA 98122

925.262.7080

beigidarya@gmail.com

http://www.dbeigi.com

Skills

- HTML5, CSS3, and JavaScript

- jQuery and Bootstrap libraries

- Vue.js Framework

- Git Version Control

- Bash CLI

- Google Analytics

- WordPress & TerminalFour CMS

- Implementing Third-Party API

- Adobe Premiere Pro, InDesign, and

   Lightroom

- Microsoft Office Suite

- PeopleSoft & EmpACT

- Sony Vegas Video Editing

Career Summary

A determined, highly motivated young professional whose career objective is to excel and grow within the ecosphere of website development. By utilizing past work experience and expanding on new skills, the trajectory of work-place success will be brought to fruition by learning new abilities, development languages, and technologies that will facilitate a robust career pathway.

Experience

Web Developer - WayForth   November 2018 - Present

- Built out and deploy the brand new layout and redesign of web-app interface using the Vue.js framework.
- Responsible for the HTML/CSS/JavaScript in the customer facing web application to maintain, update, and enhance the user experience.
- Work to conceptualize new responsive web pages through UX/UI standards and best practice SEO principles.
- Constructed, designed, and implemented the funnel pages to bring in customer acquisition. Developed the entire structure using Vue and Bootstrap frameworks to create the flow.
- Created email transaction and user mailers using Ruby.
- Updated content in our WordPress system using PHP for our main marketing website.

Web Applications Developer - Seattle University Lemieux Library   April 2018 – October 2018
(contract)

- Build, update, and maintain Lemieux Library web sites and web applications using HTML/CSS/JS and other relevant front-end technologies.
- Work with Content Management System of the University(TerminalFour) and the server to make efficient uwebsite updates.
- Evaluate and assess library web sites, plan for future improvements.
- Define Library web site objectives by analyzing user requirements and feedback, envision future system features and functionality, and help to plan their implementation.
- Coordinate with content owners and authors to ensure that the Library's web presence is relevant, accurate, up-to-date, user-centered, and accessible.

Content & Marketing Assistant - Seattle University College of Education   October 2017 – April 2018

- Utilize content management system and other creating, developing, branding, editing, and developer to enhance web presence.
- Project to produce 12 new landing pages for university programs using HTML5 and CSS3 to create dynamic and responsive webpage designs.
- Make edits, update, new pages, and source code adjustments to the College of Education website through the Terminal4 content management system.
- Updates and posts on social media platforms for College occurrences and events.
- Using the college's e-communications platform (Campaign Monitor) to create e-communications to alumni.
- Allocate and update manager recruiting lists each quarter.

Marketing Assistant - Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage   June 2016 – June 2017

- Provided marketing support, program and software assistance, and business and supply needs for real estate agents, vendors, and the marketing department.
- Generate and distribute monthly market listings and company communications for all regions.
- Project planning and coordination for nationwide marketing and real estate affairs.
- Event planning and support for offices, corporate Product Studio, and agents.
- Work with E-Blast and social media for promoting company brand.
- Allocate and update manager recruiting lists each quarter.

Education

Seattle University   September 2017 – September 2018
Web Development Certification

University of California, Davis   September 2013 – June 2015
Bachelors of Arts, Psychology (3.65 GPA)